

CHAPTER 8

Discussion:

ECG 8-3 is also NSR. Notice that in this case, the complexes are all negative. Once again, the orientation of the complexes should not enter into the diagnosis. The P waves are notched but this is a normal finding.

